

Journalism, Media and World Affairs
A Day With Harvard's International Nieman Fellows
May 20-22, 2011
Point Lookout: Northport, Maine

Friday, May 20

4:30 PM (approx.) Guests arrive at Rockport Marine Park (on Rockport Harbor). Host families will meet them and provide dinner.

Evening Dinner with host families

Saturday, May 21

Searsport Room, Point Lookout* (at the Summit)

8:30 AM Registration and coffee for Fellows and attendees

9:00 AM Panel Discussion One: WHAT IS THE IMPACT OF NEW OR EXISTING TECHNOLOGIES ON JOURNALISM AND MEDIA, FOR BETTER OR WORSE?

9:45 AM Panel Discussion Two: WHAT FORMATIVE EXPERIENCES SHAPED YOUR LIFE AS A JOURNALIST?

10:30AM Break

11:00 AM Panel Discussion Three: WHAT ARE THE MAJOR FOREIGN OR DOMESTIC POLICY CHALLENGES FACING YOUR COUNTRY OR REGION?

11:45 AM Panel Discussion Four: WHAT DO YOU SEE AS THE COMING ROLES FOR PROFESSIONAL AND AMATEUR JOURNALISTS IN YOUR MEDIA?

12:30 PM Lunch

1:30 PM Afternoon: Free choice

Compass Room, Point Lookout (at the Summit)

6:30 PM Cocktails

7:00 PM Pre-dinner speaker: Anne Garrels, NPR foreign correspondent

8:00 PM Dinner

Note: For the Nieman children, we will, as in past years, organize supervised activities Saturday morning and Saturday evening—all at Point Lookout.

Sunday, May 22

Morning Fellows and host families: breakfast and free time

11:00AM Brunch for Fellows and their families, hosts, and board members at the Rockport Boat Club

2:00PM Nieman families depart for Cambridge from Rockport Marine Park